SECTION 4: SYPD GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

4. SYPD PURCHASING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Unless the context indicates otherwise, the term “Client” refers to SYPD. The term “Service Provider” refers to the entity named on the order and contracting with the Client. The term “Contract” can be taken to mean either (a) the purchase order or (b) the supply agreement, whichever is in place.

4.1. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1) Price: The prices stated on the order shall be held firm for the period of 3 months unless specifically stated otherwise

2) Source of Instructions: The Service Provider shall not seek nor accept instructions from any source external to SYPD in relation to the performance of the contract.

3) Assignment: The Service Provider shall not assign, transfer, sublet or subcontract the contract or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Client.

4) Corruption: The Service Provider shall not give, nor offer to give, anyone employed by the Client an inducement or gift that could be perceived by others to be a bribe. The Service Provider agrees that a breach of this provision may lead to an immediate end to business relationships and termination of existing contracts.

5) Confidentiality: All data, including but not limited to, maps, drawings, photographs, estimates, plans, reports and budgets that has been compiled by or received by the Service Provider under the contract shall be the property of SYPD and shall be treated as confidential. All such data should be delivered to the authorized officials representing the Client upon request.

5.1) The Service Provider may not communicate at any time to any other person, government or authority external to SYPD, any information that has been compiled through association with SYPD which has not been made public except with written authorization from the Client. These obligations do not lapse upon termination of the contract.

6) Use of Emblem or Name: Unless otherwise agreed in writing; the Service Provider shall not advertise nor make public the fact that it is supplying goods or services to the Client, nor shall the Service Provider in any way whatsoever use the name or emblem of SYPD in connection with its business or otherwise.

7) Observance of Law: The Service Provider shall comply with all laws, ordinances, rules and regulations bearing upon the performance of its obligations under the terms of the contract.

8) Force Majeure: The meaning of the term can be taken to mean acts of God, war (declared or not), invasion, revolution, insurrection or acts similar in nature or force.

8.1) In the event of and as soon as possible after the occurrence of any cause deemed force majeure, the Service Provider must inform the Client of the full particulars in writing. If the Service Provider is rendered unable either in part or in whole to perform its obligations then the Client shall take such action as it considers, in its sole discretion, to be appropriate or necessary in the circumstances.

8.2) If the Service Provider is permanently rendered incapable in whole or part by reason of force majeure to complete its obligations and responsibilities under the contract then the Client will have the right to suspend or terminate the contract on the same terms and conditions laid out in section 9, Cancellation.

9) Cancellation: The Client reserves the right to cancel the contract should it suspend its activities or through changes to its mandate by virtue of the Board of SYPD and/or lack of funding. In such a case the Service Provider shall be reimbursed by SYPD for all reasonable costs incurred by the Service Provider, including all materials satisfactorily delivered and conforming to specification and terms of the contract, prior to receipt of the termination notice.

9.1) Should the Service Provider encounter solvency problems including, but not limited to, bankruptcy, liquidation, receivership and similar, the Client reserves the right to terminate the contract immediately without prejudice to any other right or remedy it may have under the terms of these conditions.

10) Warranty: The Service Provide shall provide the Client with all manufacturers' warranties. The Service Provider warrants that all goes supplied in relation to the contract meets specification, is defect free and is fit for the purpose of the intended use. If, during the warranty period, the goods are found to be defective or non-conforming to specification, the Service Provider shall promptly rectify the defect. If the defect is permanent then at the choice of the Client the Service Provider will either replace the item at their cost or reimburse the Client.

11) Inspection and Test: The Service Provide must inspect the goods prior to dispatch to ensure conformance to specification and/or any other provisions of the contract. The Client reserves the right to inspect the goods for compliance with specifications and provisions of the contract. If, in the Clients' opinion, the goods and/or services do not comply with the specification, the Client will inform the Service Provider in writing. In such a case the Service Provider shall take the necessary action to ensure compliance, liability for any additional cost incurred in rectifying compliance will rest with the Service Provider.

12) Changes: The Client reserves the right to make reasonable changes at any time to the specification, drawings, plans, quantity, packing instructions, destination or delivery instruction. If any such change affects the price of the goods or performance of service the Service Provider and Client may negotiate an equitable adjustment to the contract, provided that the Service Provider claims for adjustments in writing to the Client within 30 days from being notified of any change.

13) Export License: If an export license or licenses are required for the goods, the Service Provider has the responsibility to obtain that license or licenses.

14) Payment Terms: Unless otherwise agree, payment terms will be net 5 working days from receipt of a correctly prepared invoice.

15) Ethics: The Conduct to which SYPD expects all of its Service Providers to respect is as follows:

1. Service providers must adhere to International Labour Organisation (ILO) labour conventions, particularly international labor standards, social protection and work opportunities for all
2. Employment is freely chosen.
3. The rights of staff to freedom of association and to collective bargaining are respected.
4. Working conditions are safe and hygienic.
5. No exploitation of children is tolerated.
6. Wages paid are adequate to cover the cost of a reasonable living.
7. Working hours are not excessive.
8. No discrimination is practiced.
9. Regular employment is provided.
10. No harsh or inhumane treatment of staff is tolerated.
11. Local labour laws are complied with.
12. Social rights are respected.

Additionally, by acceptance by a supplier, service provider or contractor of a SYPD supply, service or works contract, they understand and agreed to abide by the terms of the SYPD Code of Conduct and associated policies (Programme Participant Protection Policy, Child Safeguarding Policy and Anti- Trafficking in Persons Policy).

16) Rights of SYPD: Should the Service Provider fail to perform under the terms and conditions of the contract, including but not limited to failing to obtain export licenses or to make delivery of all or part of the goods by the agreed delivery date(s), the Client may, after giving reasonable notice to the Service Provider, exercise one or more of the following rights:

- Procure all or part of the service from an alternate source, in which event the Client may hold the Service Provider liable for additional costs incurred.
- Refuse to accept all or part of the goods.
- Terminate the contract.

16.1) The contract will be terminated in the event of corrupt, fraudulent, collusive and/or coercive practices and the donor will be informed where such practices may affect their financial interests.

17) Rights of access for test purposes: SYPD is contractually obliged to facilitate certain donor's direct access to Service Providers for test purposes. This obligation is extended to all SYPD Service Providers.

18) No Agency: This order does not create a partnership between the Client and Service Provider or make one party the agent for the other for any purpose
